
2 looking for a team

My friend and myself are looking for a team to play on. We were co-captains of our highschool volleyball team (Livonia, NY). We haven't played much recently but would like to get back in to it. I played for 5 years in highschool and was a proficient hitter and setter. My Friend played for 3-4 years and was a powerful server and hitter and an okay setter. Looks like my friend wont be able to play as he's moving to Florida in a month or so.

So it's just me! I'm a great team player!
