
Setter - New to ROC - Looking for Team

Posted by s_harp44 - 2008/08/18 10:11

Hello Everyone,

I recently moved to the Rochester area, and am looking to join a team as a free agent. I was an all-conference setter on my high school varsity team, and played in a competitive volleyball league my senior year (equivalent to AAU). I also played in intramural leagues in college, but have only had a few of opportunities to play since.

However, I was trusted by my teammates to get to every second hit as their setter, though I have experience hitting and playing back row. I know court rotations very well. I also trust my ability to bounce right back into the "swing" of things, as I am very athletic and play other sports.

It would be great to find a team for the Fall season—and recommit the sport that I've enjoyed so much over the years.

I appreciate your consideration!

Thanks,

Sharon

=====

Re:Setter - New to ROC - Looking for Team

Posted by baseball - 2008/08/18 14:22

Hi Sharon, I have a new co-ed'rec' team i've put together for Wednesday's which will consist of two women and 4 men, we should be pretty decent. I have a practice set up for Sunday the 24th at 7pm, court e. please call me on my cell today when you get a chance:
752-2258 - I'm aj by the way.

=====

Re:Setter - New to ROC - Looking for Team

Posted by jyacila2 - 2008/08/20 00:27

Sharon, we are starting in the fall Sept. 8th. Mondays Int. sand court F. We are looking for an experienced setter. If interested, call Jorge cell 317-7853 e-mail jyacila@gmail.com Thanks!

=====