
Female player in need of team

Posted by KTJenis35 - 2008/08/12 15:49

I do not have a lot of organized volleyball experience (played basketball in HS & college). 5'10" female looking to play on a rec or intermediate team. I am a PE teacher so I have a lot of flexibility for night league. Willing to consider any nights! Please email me with any info, I am very interested in a fall league to stay active!
